Good Morning I.S.201! My name is Amelia from class 731, and I am here for this Talk A lot Tuesday on behalf of the S.E.A.L team

National Chocolate Cake Day is celebrated today to honor one of the most loved desserts ever. Chocolate cake has been enjoyed for hundreds of years and is a favorite for many people. This day reminds us that it's okay to enjoy the small things that bring us happiness. Just like sharing a slice of cake, simple acts of kindness can brighten someone's day. Taking time to appreciate little moments can help make school a more positive place for everyone. Whether you like chocolate cake with frosting, ice cream, or plain, it's a treat worth celebrating.

Like Martin Luther King Jr, today's affirmation is: "I use my words to build peace and understanding."

Thank you for listening and have a Tasty Tuesday 😊
