Happy Friday everyone! It's Rainie from the Seal Team, back with you all on Seal Summary Friday.

Today is officially Mickey Mouse Day. Yep, you heard me right. The birthday of our iconic mouse, Disney's Mickey Mouse. His image is found everywhere from mugs, balloons, ice cream and clothing, touching every part of our lives. And today is officially Mickey's 94th birthday.

It all started in a film called Steamboat Willie, where Mickey became famous. And from that, the Disney brand was born. Even Walt Disney said, "It was all started by a mouse!"

Mickey always teaches us to be positive and confident in ourselves, no matter what the situation is. He always teaches us to look for the best in any situation, good or bad. Nothing in this world is without risk. So, the only way to succeed is to maintain a positive attitude.

Don't worry about things you can't change, as Mickey Mouse once advised. Look forward rather than back. So, try to have a positive outlook and constantly strive to be your best self.

Thanks for listening and have yourself a Fantasia Friday! 😊
