Good morning! It's Vavin from 831 and I'm here this Words of Wisdom Wednesday on behalf of the S.E.A.L Team.

Today is a day to celebrate uniqueness and individuality because it's "Love Your Freckles Day!" Whether your freckles are sprinkles across your cheeks, nose or arms, they make you beautifully one-of-a-kind. Embrace and appreciate the distinct charm they add to your appearance. Let's take a moment today to celebrate our freckled friends and spread the message of self-love and acceptance.

As Maya Angelou once said, "It is time for parents to teach young people early on that diversity there is beauty and there is strength." Embracing our differences, whether it's freckles, unique talents, or diverse backgrounds, is what makes our community stronger and more vibrant. Let's use today as a reminder to cherish our individuality and encourage others to do the same. So, wear those freckles proudly and let your uniqueness shine!

Thanks for listening have a We Are All Special and Unique Wednesday 😊
