Good Morning I.S.201! My name is Esther Chen from class 852, and I am here for the Words of Wisdom Wednesday on behalf of the S.E.A.L Team.

Today is Global Community Engagement Day, which is a reminder that being part of a community means helping and supporting the people around you. Community isn't just where you live it also includes your friends, classmates, and everyone you see during the day at school. You don't have to do something huge to make a difference. Helping a classmate with work, checking on someone who looks upset, holding the door, or just being kind to someone who's having a tough day all count. Small actions like these can really matter more than we think. This day is about remembering that everyone plays a role in making our school a better place. When people help each other out, school feels safer, more positive, and more welcoming for everyone. So today, try to do one small thing to help someone else. It might not seem like a big deal to you, but it could mean a lot to someone else.

Thank you for listening and have a We are the World

Wednesday 😊

SEAL Team pledge:

We are the Dyker S.E.A.L. Team

Positivity is our dream

We teach it every day

To help others live the optimistic way

We learn to control our emotions and feelings

So, we always have effective social dealings

No stone left unturned; no person left behind

Every member of our team has the power to be kind

We spread kindness to our friends, families, and those who need a smile

When facing hardships and adversity, the S.E.A.L. Team goes the extra mile
