Good Morning! It's Zia from class 851 here for Words of Wisdom
Wednesday on behalf of the S.E.A.L. Team!

Today, I want to remind everyone that it's okay to make mistakes, we just have to learn from them. As the wise words go, "You can pick up a mistake and carry it as a burden; or you can set it down and use it as a stepping stone to greatness." In other words, we can see a mistake as something that stops and prevents us from moving forward, or we could use it as something to guide us. The problems we face today, and the decisions we make because of them, can be our light and doorway to our future.

Yet, it can be a lot harder said than done. It's hard to learn from a mistake you made before if you can't truly accept and admit that you've made it. Perhaps, you were embarrassed or felt guilty that you made a mistake. But it's a lot harder to move on if you can't accept it. Besides, the errors that we come across in life, help us build trust among our friends and family, become more resilient, and prove our honesty and integrity.

Thanks for listening and have a Willing To Accept the Lessons We Learn
Wednesday 😊

Affirmation of the Day - I value the lessons learned from the challenges that shape my character.

SEAL Team pledge:

We are the Dyker S.E.A.L. Team

Positivity is our dream

We teach it every day

To help others live the optimistic way

We learn to control our emotions and feelings

So, we always have effective social dealings

No stone left unturned; no person left behind

Every member of our team has the power to be kind

We spread kindness to our friends, families, and those who need a smile

When facing hardships and adversity, the S.E.A.L. Team goes the extra mile
